INDIANA HUMANITIES DISTRICT 2 IMPACT

ALL-IN

Inspired by the state's bicentennial, ALL-IN is a competition that encourages Hoosiers to learn more about Indiana, connect with their communities and imagine ways to make our state even better. Individuals around the state have accepted the challenge to go ALL-IN. In addition, Indiana Humanities provides funds, training and other resources for ALL-IN Block Parties to help organizations bring the community together for a unique way to think, read talk and do. Block Parties were awarded to the following organizations in your district:

- La Porte County Bicentennial Commission
- Indiana Bicentennial 2016 Huntington County Celebration
- Neighborhood Resources Connection, South Bend

NEXT INDIANA BOOKSHELF

The Next Indiana Bookshelf is a collection of 13 titles that encourage Hoosiers to think, read and talk about the present and future of Indiana. Organizations selected to receive a set in your district include:

TESTIMONIALS

"The support of the Indiana Humanities grant enabled the library to provide the funding for the speaker and most of the cost of the books. This year saw several reductions in the library's funds. The Civil War Let's Talk About It series might have been a casualty of the budget cuts, were it not for the grant."

Terry Rheinheimer, Middlebury Public Library

"Without your grant, we would not have had the funds to pilot the audio cell phone version of the [Downtown South Bend Architecture Walking Tour]. 'Then and Now' was a very successful heritage tourism program."

Tamara Nicholl-Smith, Downtown South Bend

"We did the poetry of Poe for April (National Poetry Month). It went very nicely with our high school library's celebration of Rock 'n Read Week - a week focusing on music and books."

Melissa Hunt, Mishawaka-Penn-Harris Public Library
