

HUMANITIES INITIATIVE GRANTS
MARCH 2013

Baggataway at the Mounds (Native American and Youth Lacrosse Expo)

GRANTEE: Friends of Angel Mounds, Inc., Evansville
CONTACT: Haley Tallman, 812.853.3956 / htallman@indianamuseum.org
AWARD: $1995
PROJECT: Native American educators will demonstrate traditional versions of lacrosse at Angel Mounds State Historic Site, interspersed with modern lacrosse sporting events for youth. (Sept. 28, 2013)

Considering the Family: Workshops on Genealogy and Family Heritage

GRANTEE: Lew Wallace Study Preservation Society, Inc., Crawfordsville
CONTACT: Larry Paarlberg, 765.362.5769 / lpaarlberg@ben-hur.com
AWARD: $903
PROJECT: A series of 7 presentations will explore the history of the General Lew Wallace family, as well as the methodology of family history and genealogy. (Apr. - Oct. 2013)

An Ethnographic Study of the Importance of Hanging Rock to the Myaamia People

GRANTEE: ARCH, Inc., Fort Wayne
CONTACT: Michael Galbraith, 260.426.5117 / mgalbraith@archfw.org
AWARD: $2000
PROJECT: Research on the Hanging Rock site will lead to a study and public lecture under the sponsorship of ARCH in Fort Wayne. (Dec. 2013, research report; Feb. 2014, lecture)

From Living Memory to Historical Memory: The Holocaust in Transition

GRANTEE: Greater Lafayette Holocaust Remembrance Conference, West Lafayette
CONTACT: Sarah Powley, 765.463.1648 / spowley@tsc.k12.in.us
AWARD: $2000
PROJECT: Recent scholarship on the Holocaust in Eastern Europe and the current conflict in Syria will be the focus of the 32nd annual holocaust conference. (Apr. 7-16, 2013)

Helen Gougar: My Place is in the Voting Booth

GRANTEE: Indiana Supreme Court, Lafayette
CONTACT: Elizabeth Osborn, 317.233.8682 / elizabeth.osborn@courts.IN.gov
AWARD: $2000
PROJECT: A student reenactment of Gougar v. Timberlake, the women's suffrage case that Helen Gougar argued before the Indiana Supreme Court in 1894, will be held at the Tippecanoe County Courthouse. A state historical marker will also be installed at Gougar's home in Lafayette. (Oct. 2014)

Memory Chain

GRANTEE: Trustees of Indiana University, Bloomington
CONTACT: Perry Metz, 812.855.8000 / metz@indiana.edu
AWARD: $2000
PROJECT: WTIU will create four vignettes based on early twentieth-century panoramic photographs of Indiana venues, to be broadcast quarterly. (Apr. 2013 - Apr. 2014)

North Manchester Video History: Yesterday and Today

GRANTEE: North Manchester Historical Society, North Manchester
CONTACT: Mary Chrastil, 260.982.0672 / nmhistory@cinergymetro.net
AWARD: $2000
PROJECT: This project will produce two video segments: a Ken Burns-type depiction of historic North Manchester and a documentary of the town today based on a well-known historic film that shows topics of significance there in 1938. (June 2014, masters completed; Aug. 2014, first screenings)

Old Northside Scavenger Hunt

GRANTEE: Indiana Landmarks, Indianapolis
CONTACT: Kelly Gascoine / kgascoine@indianalandmarks.org
AWARD: $1000
PROJECT: A "scavenger hunt" will be used to encourage learning about the Old Northside Historic District and its architecture. The event will take place as a component of Indiana Landmarks' annual summer festival and will be aimed at an adult audience. (July 13, 2013)

Protecting Our Community Legacy: A Collaborative Approach to Collections Care and Conservation Through the IUPUI Collections Care Fair

GRANTEE: IUPUI, Indianapolis
CONTACT: Holly Cusack-McVeigh, 317.274.1490 / hmcusack@iupui.edu
AWARD: $1260
PROJECT: IUPUI Museum Studies students and professional conservators will team up to provide an afternoon workshop for the community on the care of family heirlooms. (Apr. 6, 2013)

Tales of the Shawandasse: Sharing Shawnee Culture, Stories and Traditions

GRANTEE: Eiteljorg Museum of American Indian and Western Art, Indianapolis
CONTACT: Martha Hill, 317.275.1377 / mhill@eiteljorg.com
AWARD: $1800
PROJECT: Fred A. Shaw will tell stories and talk about the language and history of the Shawnee at the Eiteljorg's annual Indian Market and Festival. (June 22-23, 2013)

VonnegutFest

GRANTEE: Kurt Vonnegut Memorial Library, Indianapolis
CONTACT: Julia Whitehead, 317.652.1954 / julia.whitehead@vonnegutlibrary.org
AWARD: $2000
PROJECT: VonnegutFest will be a multi-venue weekend festival with a variety of events related to themes in Kurt Vonnegut Jr.'s work. The main speaker will be author Tim O'Brien. (Nov. 9, 2013)

Walking Tour of the Historic and Massive Athenaeum, by Paper and Mobile App

GRANTEE: Athenaeum Foundation, Indianapolis
CONTACT: Cassie Stockamp, 317.655.2755 / CassieStockamp@AthenaeumFoundation.com
AWARD: $2000
PROJECT: This project will produce a guide to the Athenaeum building, formerly Das Deutsche Haus, in print and as a mobile app. (Apr.-June 2013)