The Colors That Surround Us - A Stained Glass Tour ($2,000)
Anderson Center for the Arts, Anderson, Ind.
A survey of 19th and 20th century stained glass in Madison County will focus on both the works and the structures where they are located. When complete, the survey results will be made available online, and a brochure highlighting the most significant examples will be designed.

Down in Old Corydon ($2,000)
Historical Society of Harrison County, Corydon, Ind.
Leading up to the Bicentennial year, this grant will help to produce an illustrated booklet on Corydon, the first state capital, and buildings from the Capitol Period (1816-1825).

Haan Mansion Museum Guided Tours for Students ($1,000)
Haan Mansion Museum of Indiana Art, Lafayette, Ind.
Guided tours of the Haan Mansion will give students an opportunity to learn about the Colonial Revival architectural style, Indiana art and the history of the building, which was originally the State of Connecticut Building at the 1904 World's Fair in St. Louis.

Historic Riverside Video Walking Tour ($2,000)
City of Evansville, Dept. of Metropolitan Development, Evansville, Ind.
A walking tour brochure of the Historic Riverside Neighborhood will use QR codes to connect to video productions on the history and architecture of the district. The videos will be researched and produced by students at Reitz High School.

Historical Sites and Cultural Groups in Marshall County ($2,000)
Wythougan Valley Preservation Council, Inc., Plymouth, Ind.
A printed and online guide to National Register properties and historic districts in Marshall County will also include histories of the county’s African American, Amish, Latino and Swedish communities.

Honor and Preserve Historic Meridian-Kessler Video ($2,000)
Meridian-Kessler Neighborhood Association, Indianapolis, Ind.
An educational video will showcase the Meridian-Kessler neighborhood and explain the goals of a Conservation District.

The Limestone Heritage Project ($2,000)
Monroe Co. Historic Preservation Board of Review, Bloomington, Ind.
A web-based clearinghouse and K-6 curriculum will bring together resources on the limestone heritage of Indiana.

Old City Hall Building Student Study Trips ($2,000)
Fort Wayne History Center, Fort Wayne, Ind.
Free interactive study trips to the Fort Wayne History Center (Old City Hall) will be offered to all public, private and home school students in Allen County and surrounding counties.

Peters-Margedant House Educational Materials ($2,000)
University of Evansville, Evansville, Ind.
This project will produce a video and photographic documentation of the 1935 Peters-Margedant House, a prototype of Usonian design by Wes Peters, a close associate of Frank Lloyd Wright.

"Preservation on a Shoestring" Workshop Series ($2,000)
Cornerstone Society, Inc., Madison, Ind.
Three workshops on historic preservation issues and techniques will be offered in southeast Indiana. The project will target property owners who are not currently connected to the historic preservation community.

Retrofitting Historic Buildings to be Age and Ability Friendly ($2,000)
Indiana Philanthropy Alliance, Indianapolis, Ind.
An issue brief and educational webinar will show how historic preservation can be utilized as a tool in developing age- and ability-friendly communities.

The Soul of Indiana's Communities ($1,000)
Ball State University, Muncie, Ind.
The project will produce a photo survey of the urban design, central historic structures, commercial centers and prominent historic districts in the crossroads, hamlets, villages and small towns of south central and southwest Indiana.